A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

DEATH OF GOV. HELM.

We regret to announce that Gov John L. Helm died at his residence at Elizabethtown, on Sunday, September, the 8th. He had been ill about four weeks. The people have lost a governor, a statesman and a christian gentleman. His death has cast a gloom over our country, and the people mourn the loss of a true friend, whose place cannot be filled. No man in Kentucky had as many warm friends as Gov. Helm. His faithful adherence to principle, strict integrity, firmness and undoubted ability, gave him an unbounded influence. We might say that it was but yesterday that the great and good man stood face to face with the people, and spoke to them.

His venerable head, but sparkling countenance, and powerful eye, gave us assurance that his life would be spared many days of usefulness yet to come—but he has gone from among us.

He was buried on Tuesday, the 10th inst., with Masonic honors.

In and about Washington City there seems to be a quietness, a cool respectful, law abiding disposition on the part of the people, and with those who have charge of the execution of the laws a spirit of peace and good will toward all men is manifesting itself. This good spirit has been hovering around that city for a few days only, but we hope it may continue, and that its influence may be seen and felt throughout the whole country: When good men rule the people rejoice, but when Stanton & Co., were the controlling spirits, the country was full of sorrow.

If Congress would cease to make laws for the benefit of a class of people who do not, and cannot appreciate that which we would call their disinterested philanthropy. Of this, however, it would be useless to speak, for a hellish, negroizing spirit has taken possession of Congress, and they seem determined to violate God's laws, as well as the laws of man. Let them continue in their fell purposes. Their own progeny will curse them hereafter, and many will curse themselves before they give up the ghost. We hope, however, that some good may grow out of all this evil.

Last Friday evening Paris was in a terrible ferment. The Fair was on hand, and the city was filled with strangers, a few of whom was under the influence of whisky. A colored man shot a white man, and wounded him severely, and in fact it was believed that the wound would prove fatal. He was arrested and placed in jail. As the news of the shooting began to spread among the people, a spirit of mobocracy began to grow, until the shout of "hang him," was heard in several parts of the city, and this increased spirit for violence continued until it broke out in earnest; and a rush was made by a crowd upon the jail for the purpose of taking him out of the hands of the officers of the law. All the influential and respectable citizens of Paris and surrounding country, opposed the mob, and by strong appeals to reason saved the people of that place from a disgrace, which in the eyes of a radical majority in the North, would have been termed execrable. We were pleased to know and see that the spirit of lawlessness could be pacified; that men had not lost all their reason; that they had some respect for the majesty of the law, and that when they were shown the danger of its violation they were willing to yield so gracefully.

What was done for the negro, was done quickly. It was necessary that it should be so, for his salvation as well as for the good name of the city, as we had seldom seen a more determined spirit exhibited for violence on the part of any body of men.

Judge Hawes moved about among them, in earnest, making strong appeals for peace and quietness. Williams made a strong speech at the Comt-house door, and begged them not to do so great an outrage in the face of right and justice, as to hang the negro without a trial, assuring them that if the negro was guilty of murder, that the people of Bourbon county, would punish him. His speech had a fine effect, and when he was through, but few could be found singing "hang him," and they were among the last men who had sufficient courage to try it on. They had strong lungs for shouting, but their cowardice was too great for active measures, and they sneaked off, satisfied that they had brought themselves into contempt. We know many brave and clever young men, who favored violence toward the negro, but they made no noise about it. They would have participated actively in the hanging. But they were reasonable, and listened attentively to the speeches made, and yielded readily to the truths announced to them. When they were quieted, the fierceness of the mob spirit had relented, and the danger passed. Paris, that night, was as quiet as a church-yard for the storm was over.

We are opposed to mobs under all circumstances. We have never believed in mobs, and we cannot believe that a man is a good citizen, who favors a spirit of the kind. This land is one of law and order, and the security for its enforcement is based upon the intelligence and toleration of the people. When a man violates the law, he is arrested and punished, if an enforcement is permitted. In this State, hereafter, the laws will be enforced. The Democratic party of the State has pledged its faith for its enforcement, and it would have been the duty of the Governor to have brought every man, connected with that mob, if they had been permitted to carry out their wild designs, to trial and punishment. Every true Democrat will oppose mobocracy, for they have certainly felt its terrible effects laid upon them during the last six years, by the radical mob, which has devastated most of this country South of the Ohio river. The radical party is nothing but a mob. They have violated the constitution, as well as the laws, for their great head, I had Stevens, says so. Had that negro been hung by a mob, in Paris, last Friday night, the radicals would have sent a bigger mob, and hung twenty for one. Therefore, as mobocracy is a principle of the radical party, it cannot be of the Democratic party. Let Democrats, every where, young and old, respect the laws. Let us display a spirit of peace and good will toward all men; respecting each others rights, and treat the black man with kindness. Democracy is the fore-runner of christianity; is founded upon reason. There can be no pure christianity, or lasting peace and prosperity, unless it is sustained by the tolerant spirit and principles of Democracy. With these principles, and good hearts, we will have that peace which passeth all understanding.

Special Notice

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America at a mission, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous-weakness, early decay, diseases of the urinary and sexual organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN; Station D, Bible House May 16th New York City.

They are selling at Dabney's drug store the Eugenia Hair Restorer, in mammoth sized bottles and the very best preparation in the world at only 75 cents per bottle. Try it.

An Autumn Suggestion.

Now as heavy togs arise and searching winds commence to blow; now, as the human body, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heat of summer, begins to wane and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset; now is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating medicines in existence.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Fever and Ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physician's admit, will not quell the pharse of the disease which at present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy is deadlier than the disease. But if Quinine is inefficient in intermitting fevers.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract under heavy penalties, that any given Fever-and-Ague District should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided the inhabitants would take the bitters according to the directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in which this steaming invigorating and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken daily as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the official specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of chills and fevers. Vigor is the thing most needful in these cases, as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and are the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

The "Lacking" Base Ball Club will complete its organization next Monday, and then business will be busy, and we'll bet a thousand wild turkeys that in less than three weeks it will be able to beat any similar organization this side of sunrise.

Marshall Butts, of Covington, brought the black boy Willis, to Cynthiana last week and lodged him in jail. The hundred dollar bill, which he took from his comrade, was found upon his person. He asserts that he only took the money in fun. His old master, one of his best friends, had cautioned him the day before he committed the theft, to be honest and good, but he would not listen to his advice.

We desire to impress upon the minds of our epicurian friends, the fact that Mr. Neibel on Main street has on hand fresh oysters for sale in cans or half cans, or prepared to suit the appetite of the most fastidious, day and night. Call and get a bite.

Mr. Grinnan, our City Surveyor, has just finished an excellent improvement at the entrance of the bridge across Licking. He has built a culvert, and filled up a hole that has been a great annoyance to every one who rides in a vehicle. We favor such improvements, and thank the Council for it.

The Scott county Fair commences on the 17th of this month. A fine display of stock is anticipated. The good people of old Harrison should go up and see.

Don't be afraid to invest 10cts, it may secure you 10000 dollars. We have received the second number of "The Pen and Pencil," a new illustrated weekly, brimming full of illustrations and entertaining reading matter. Every purchaser of which will secure a ticket free, entitling him to participate in the distribution of 50,000 in Greenbacks. Sold by all news-dealers. Price 10cts with ticket, by mail 12cts. T. R. The ladies of Cynthiana and vicinity have gone to much expense and much trouble to get up their tableau, for the benefit of the Monumental Society, and it will be a grand affair. We want our friends and the public generally to be there on Wednesday and Friday evenings, certain, for if will be worth seeing, and then it should be remembered that the object is praiseworthy. Remember our friends who fell for a cause as glorious as it was great, and give a pitance to place a monument to mark the spot where they lie, will show to the world that your principles are more than skin deep. Either do this, or forever hold your peace about your sympathy for those who suffered while you slept in feather beds.

On Saturday the great Tournament takes place at the Fair Grounds. It will be a grand affair. An immense crowd will be in attendance. All the beauty and gallantry of Kentucky will be there. The President, A. J. Beale, has authorized us to say, that the equestrian ring for ladies, has been changed for boys, and that the premium of 25 dollars will be awarded to the best rider, for boys of a certain age. He also requests us to say, that those persons who have subscribed money to the Association will please come forward and pay up, and those that have not subscribed, a chance is yet offered them to do their duty in this work they have undertaken. We hope no further appeal from us or the Association may be necessary.

The thousands who have traveled to and from the Fair Grounds during the last three days, as well as ourselves, speak in high terms of the urbanity of the gentlemanly conductors of the Special train, Messrs. Matlack Charles Gorham. Better or more accommodating or more popular conductors could not easily have been selected.—Paris Reporter.

A Patent Straw Cutter.—Sandusky, Kelly & Co., of Lexington, Ky., are the owners of a new invention, known as the "Patent Straw Cutter," which is one of the best of the kind ever invented. It has a sickle edge and is diamond pointed, and will cut everything, from a sheet of paper to an ear of corn, and is better calculated for preparing feed for stock than any other cutter ever introduced in this country. Mr. John Hogg is agent at this place. Price $12.

Millinery.—See advertisement of Devou & Co., Cincinnati. Experience of 20 years in the Millinery business, enables this house to give unusual inducements. They are reliable and head the list of houses in that line.

HARRISON HOTEL HOP.—A Hop will be given at the Harrison Hotel, this Thursday evening, Sept. 12th, 1867. Saxton's Band will be in attendance. Managers, Reed Martin, David Snyder, Wm. Turner, O. Kennard, O. Huffman, Ed. Flannagan.

On Wednesday night, the 4th instance, the residence and furniture of Absalom Clifford was destroyed by fire. He lived near Berry's Station in this county—loss $3,000.

Reynolds & Brother are just about finishing the large t distillery in the county at Boyd's Station in this county. They will be able to make forty barrels per day.

A large crowd is in attendance upon our Fair. The fine display of Stock is equal to any former year.

We are requested to say that Aaron Jones will give a sparing exhibition in this city next saturday afternoon.

DIED.

August 31st 1867, of congestion of the brain Sodie, youngest daughter of T. V. and A. B. Ashbrook, aged 3 years. 11 months and 30 days, wanting only one day of being 4 years old. Thus young, loving and beloved, has she passed through the eternal gates to the city of the silent dead. God has taken her from this world of suffering to a celestial home not made with hands. She has gone to walk the shining streets of the New Jerusalem, with her little sister Lizzie, who crossed over the dark river of death just 18 months ago and now side by side do they wander through the Garden of Eden, and live on the glories of their home.

Remember our friends who fell for a cause as glorious as it was great, and give a pitance to place a monument to mark the spot where they lie, will show to the world that your principles are more than skin deep. Either do this, or forever hold your peace about your sympathy for those who suffered while you slept in feather beds.

Mr. Grinnan, our City Surveyor, has just finished an excellent improvement at the entrance of the bridge across Licking. He has built a culvert, and filled up a hole that has been a great annoyance to every one who rides in a vehicle. We favor such improvements, and thank the Council for it.

The Scott county Fair commences on the 17th of this month. A fine display of stock is anticipated. The good people of old Harrison should go up and see.

Don't be afraid to invest 10cts, it may secure you 10000 dollars. We have received the second number of "The Pen and Pencil," a new illustrated weekly, brimming full of illustrations and entertaining reading matter. Every purchaser of which will secure a ticket free, entitling him to participate in the distribution of 50,000 in Greenbacks. Sold by all news-dealers. Price 10cts with ticket, by mail 12cts. T. R. Pawley & Co., publisher, 21 & 23 Main street, N. Y.

The ladies of Cynthiana and vicinity have gone to much expense and much trouble to get up their tableau, for the benefit of the Monumental Society, and it will be a grand affair. We want our friends and the public generally to be there on Wednesday and Friday evenings, certain, for if will be worth seeing, and then it should be remembered that the object is praiseworthy.
